Both Pleasure and Profit Derived from Time Spent at the Beatrice Chautauqua.

COUNCIL BLUFFS AND OMAHA ASSEMBLY.

Keen Interest Aroused in the Coming Great Debate at Beatrice, and Thousands Are Expected to Be Present.

Beatrice, Neb., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The eighth day of the Beatrice Chautauqua assembly opened at 10 o'clock this morning under a clear sky.

The beautiful moonlight nights are doubly enhanced by the delightfully cool breezes from the river valley, in which the assembly grounds are located.

There was an encouraging attendance at the 8:30 Rev. Mr. Miller took for his discourse the beautiful subject of "Temperance."

At 10:45 the chorus class, now increased to a membership of 200, gave a grand practice rehearsal.

The lecture of John DeWitt Miller at the tabernacle in the afternoon was the event of the day.

The evening lecture by Superintendent Davidson on "A Trip Through Switzerland" was a brilliant narrative, tersely and interestingly told.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Hill Nominated for Congress in the Seventh District.

A REUNION OF VETERANS AT STUART.

Illinois Central Employees Urged to Invest Their Earnings in the Company's Stock—Other Iowa News Notes.

Des Moines, Ia., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Ex-Lieutenant Governor J. A. T. Hill of this city was nominated for congress by acclamation today by the Seventh district republican caucus.

Major Conroy, the district republican by nearly three thousand, instating his election, Captain Hill made a short address, in which he expressed himself as ready to support the principles of the republican party and to stand by those who have given him the honor to him.

He said he was in favor of putting gold and silver in circulation by law, of protection to American industries and of the power of the state to regulate the liquor traffic.

Some Serious Charges. Cedar Rapids, Ia., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The next issue of the Railway Conductors' Monthly will contain a highly sensational article over the signature of William P. Daniels, grand chief secretary of the order, relating charges against ex-Grand Chief Conductor Wheaton.

It is stated that Daniels is holding back some of the worst charges, but those set forth include double dealings, treachery to the order and gross misbehavior in office.

Daniels claims that Wheaton is a man of support and in order to avoid public scandal, he long stood by Wheaton, and says that he now exposes him only to save himself from Wheaton's dishonest practice of throwing the responsibility for improper acts upon his associates.

To these charges Daniels adds a general attack on the order, its officers, its morality and its members. He says he has the proofs in writing for all his allegations.

The Reunion at Stuart. Stuart, Ia., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Stuart is alive with veterans today, it being the reunion of the Colonel Redford association.

The city is handsomely decorated and bands of music and brass corps parade the streets, displaying their strains and martial airs.

Four Dances. Iowa City, July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Every employee of the Illinois Central here has received a circular letter from President Blair urging all employees to invest their savings in Illinois Central stock.

The plan here will be enlarged and a processing plant will probably be added after a time and branch houses established at a number of the largest cities in the upper Mississippi valley and the west.

A Bold Daylight Robbery. Fort Dodge, Ia., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—One of the boldest daylight robberies ever perpetrated here was reported today. The house of Ole Olson, a day laborer, was entered in the middle of the day while the owner was at work.

The robberies were committed by a party of five men, who were armed with revolvers and pistols. The loot consisted of a large amount of money in a bureau drawer and a number of valuable articles.

Will Build a Grand House. District Court. Sayre Walker, doing business at 66 North Sixth street, has commenced suit in the district court against J. Gleason.

They claim that Gleason agreed to buy certain goods valued at $6,000 and give in payment certain real estate in Nance and Bove counties valued at $4,300 and the balance in cash at stated periods.

The plaintiffs claim to have performed their part of the contract, and that the defendant has wholly failed to keep his part of the agreement. They therefore ask damages in the sum of $5,000.

In the case of George W. Paul against C. W. Johnson, a building contract, the plaintiff was returned giving the plaintiff $4,145.85.

On appeal of the state against Charles Matthews, the dog catcher, came to a close last evening. The judge returned a verdict finding the accused guilty of assault with intent to injure, and sentencing him to the penitentiary for six months.

The Watch Has Been Claimed. The fine gold watch that Frank Wallis had in his possession when arrested last Sunday night has been claimed, and things being looked to, the watch may be returned to its owner.

The owner of the watch is Officer Edgill, and on account of it being very valuable he had it changed to his friend, Attorney McCall. As for days ago McCall was in Lincoln on business, since that time Wallis has been arrested with the watch, in his possession. The police are led to believe that he stole the watch from McCall's room, as the day before the arrest, when he attempted to pawn it for $5, he made the request that it be kept out of sight until called for.

Tied Her to a Bed Post. P. Walcott and his neighbor, P. Payne, two Italians, both of whom live at 31 South First street, last night started out with the fixed determination of accumulating a big sum of money. Mrs. Walcott had a desire to go alone, and to prevent her from doing so the two men bound her hand and feet and then led her to a bed post in a building on the corner of First and Second streets. There she was left for the night, and it was not until the next day that she was discovered.

Pierre Making a Gallant Fight. YANKTON, S. D., July 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The steamer Chaska arrived at Yankton from Pierre this afternoon with the Capital City band and 100 dollars worth of Pierre, all of whom will help celebrate the Fourth at Yankton. Pierre is making a gallant, clean fight for the permanent capital and will get about two-thirds of the votes of the state.

An Original Package Dose. GIBRARD, Kan., July 3.—O. G. Basse and George M. White, agents for a Kansas City liquor store, were today sentenced to pay a fine of $500 each and to be confined in the county jail for sixty days for maintaining a nuisance in the shape of an original package house.

Faults of digestion cause disorders of the liver, and the whole system becomes deranged. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial acts on the liver, purifies the blood, restores digestion and assimilation, and thus makes pure blood.

A False Alarm. At midnight a false alarm called the fire department to the Union Pacific shops. The night watchman seeing smoke issuing from one of the windows of the blacksmith shop, pulled the bell. A block of wood burning in one of the furnaces caused the trouble.

Deaths. WARE—Elijah, aged 67 years and 10 months, Thursday, July 3, at his residence, 1824 Webster street, Omaha. Buried at St. Joseph's cemetery. The funeral will take place on his late residence, 1824 Webster street, Saturday, July 5, at 1:30 p. m.

Notes About the City. West Weaver of this city, formerly with the G. H. Raymond packing company, and Miss Anna Stearns of Buffalo, N. Y., have taken out a marriage license.

Soll Hopper, with his wife, has returned from Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Hopper and her husband have gone to Villa for a short visit.

A. H. Merrill and son, Frank Merrill, have gone to Creston. James B. Hunt of Pueblo, Colo., is visiting his mother, M. M. Hunt, east of the Nebraska savanna.

Miss Helen Wyrick, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Ryan, has gone to Illinois. Work has been commenced on the new building for the Germania athletic club.

South Omaha Lodge No. 10, Independent Order of Good Templars, will give a protease picnic at the Germania athletic club this evening.

A daughter born to Councilman and Mrs. James J. Bohannon at 9:20 a. m. on Thursday morning at the Third ward station.

A billion avulsion from the Germania athletic club, Twenty-fourth and J streets, will be given on Saturday afternoon.

A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Goeman. Patrick T. McGrath, stock buyer for the Germania packing company, left for Chicago on Thursday.

There was no meeting of the board of education because of a lack of quorum. The Ladies of Providence, who have had charge of St. Annes parochial school, left to spend the week-end at the residence of the older, St. Mary's-of-the-Woods, Ind.

John Koon of Chicago got off the train yesterday afternoon and was slightly injured by being struck by an engine on an adjoining track.

Sampled Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine at Kohr & Co's., Debs and Douglas, curts headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, etc.

A True Com Story. A curious com story is told by Wall Kitchpatrick, proprietor of the Anna party. It is as follows, says an Anna, Ill., special to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Several weeks ago he discovered that the roof of his residence on East Russell street was being shingled by the other side of the street.

He found that a number of shingles had been torn off in some unaccountable manner. All sorts of causes were assigned, but finally it was decided to lay the blame on one of the famous windstorms which have visited southern Illinois during last spring. Repairs were delayed for a week or more until Dr. K. could find time to put on a new roof. Immediately after the discovery of the leak in the roof the family began to be alarmed by noises, which were heard only at night but at all times. No explanation could be given, until finally when work was commenced on the roof. Then a nestful of young raccoons was discovered in the chimney. They were apparently about three weeks old. The old one could not be found for a day or two, but finally she was driven from her shelter by a dog, down by boys and chased into a cage. There it was kept until it was ready to be shot.
